ARTICLE 1 - ESTABLISHING THE JEWISH LOS ANGELES THIRD PARTY POOLED TRUST

Section 1.01 Introduction

This Declaration of Trust creating a Third Party Pooled Special Needs Trust is made on February 1, 2017, by Jewish Los Angeles Special Needs Financial Services, Inc., a California not-for-profit corporation (sometimes hereinafter referred to as "the Initial Settlor" or "JLA Trust"). Jewish Los Angeles Special Needs Financial Services, Inc., is the Initial Declarant and Initial Settlor of the Trust. The term "Initial Settlor" shall refer to Jewish Los Angeles Special Needs Financial Services, Inc. The term "Settlor" shall refer to persons or entities who contribute funds or property for the benefit of an Individual who has an "Individual Trust Account." The terms "Settlor" and "Individual Trust Account" are more specifically defined in Article 7, below.

The Trust established by this Declaration shall be known as the JLA Third Party Pooled Special Needs Trust or JLA Third Party Trust dated February 1, 2017 and is hereinafter referred to as the JLA Third Party Trust. Any Reference to the Jewish Los Angeles Third Party Special Needs Trust or JLA Third Party Trust shall refer to this Trust as it may from time-to-time be amended or restated.

Section 1.02 Trust Irrevocable

This Trust is irrevocable.

Section 1.03 Purpose of Trust

It is the intention of JLA Trust in creating this Trust to create a supplemental fund for the benefit of Beneficiaries under this Trust and not reduce or eliminate government benefits or assistance to which the Beneficiaries may otherwise be entitled. The Trustee will hold funds for the benefit of individual Beneficiaries in Individual Trust Accounts. The funds will be pooled together for investment and management purposes.

The purpose of this trust agreement is to provide a mechanism through which disbursements will be made from each Beneficiary's Individual Trust Account that will enhance the quality of life and promote independence for each Beneficiary without causing a loss of eligibility for needs-based benefits such as SSI, Medi-Cal or In-Home Support Services (IHSS). Reference in this instrument to Medi-Cal include reference to any other state's Medicaid program equivalent.

The mission of the JLA Trust is to ensure that people with disabilities are able to obtain the highest possible quality of life by leveraging the power of pooled investments to assist with long-term financial security and maximum independence. The JLA Trust also gives families access to a professional fiduciary, a service previously available only to high net-asset families.

Section 1.04 Funding

The Trust Estate shall consist of an initial contribution of at minimum $20,000 and all additional contributions in cash or property made to the Trust Estate at any time by any Settlor in accordance with the provisions of Section 1.06, below.

Section 1.05 Settlor's Contributions

- a. The Trust shall be effective as to any Beneficiary upon execution of a Transfer/Joinder Agreement by a Settlor or by a Court Order specifically directing distribution to the Trust and execution of a Joinder Agreement, subject to the approval of the Trustee. Upon delivery to and acceptance by the Trustee of property acceptable to the Trustee, the Trust as to the Settlor of such property and the designation of the respective Beneficiary shall be irrevocable and the property so contributed shall be non-refundable.

- b. Property, interests in property, (such as a life insurance policy in which the Trust is named as a Beneficiary) and future interests in property (such as a gift or bequest under a Settlor's Will or Trust) can be designated for transfer at a future date by a Settlor as a contribution. Such designations may be revocable and can be revoked by the Settlor as to such property at any time during that Settlor's life upon prior written notice from the Settlor to the Trustee.

Section 1.06 Non-Profit Status

JLA Trust has been granted tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Section 1.07 Trustee Appointment, Delegation and Removal

The initial Trustee appointed under this Agreement shall be Denise Klein, a licensed professional fiduciary. However, JLA Trust shall have the authority to remove and replace any Trustee at any time. Under this authority, JLA Trust may elect to serve as Trustee, may name a replacement Trustee, or may name another person or entity to serve as a Co-Trustee with any then serving Trustee. JLA Trust may also appoint separate Co-Trustees to serve jointly as Co-Trustee with the Trustee over a specific Individual Beneficiary Account where necessary or convenient.

Any Trustee or Co-Trustee appointed under this Section shall be a corporate trustee, private professional fiduciary, attorney licensed to practice law in California or other person or entity authorized to serve as a Trustee under the provisions of the California Professional Fiduciaries Act, from time-to-time existing.

In the event that there is more than one Trustee serving under this agreement, the term Trustee in this document shall refer to the Trustee or Co-Trustees specifically appointed to a specific Individual Beneficiary Account.

Section 1.08 Trust Amendment, Modification and Reformation

Notwithstanding the irrevocability of this Trust as set forth in Section 1.02, above, the JLA Trust's Board of Directors may amend, modify or reform the Trust for any of the following purposes:

- (a) To conform the provisions of the Trust to any rules or regulations that are issued by any governing body or agency relating to the intent and purposes of the Trust as well as to meet the requirements of any new laws, rules or regulations applicable to the Trust;
- (b) To continue to meet the purposes of the Trust;
- (c) To clarify the construction and administration of the Trust;
- (d) To comply with the specific requirements of state and/or federal law which may be applicable to a Beneficiary;
- (e) To comply with Internal Revenue Service, other government agency requests and/or the requirements of state laws as may be necessary from time to time.

Any such amendments, modifications or reformations may be made prospectively or retroactively, nunc pro tunc at the discretion of JLA Trust and shall not require advance or subsequent notice to any Beneficiary. However, under no circumstances may the Trust be amended, modified or reformed in a manner that would (i) render a previously made irrevocable contribution revocable or (ii) abandon or fail to fulfill the basic purposes and objectives of this Trust.

ARTICLE 2 – TRANSFER / JOINDER AGREEMENT AND INDIVIDUAL ACCOUNTS

Section 2.01 Irrevocable Contributions of Assets

The assets contributed to an Individual Trust Account established herein are irrevocably assigned, transferred, conveyed and delivered to the Trustee to be used for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary and as set forth in the Transfer/Joinder Agreement, the Trust and the Procedure Manual.

Section 2.02 Management of Individual Trust Accounts

Assets contributed on behalf of a Beneficiary are invested and administered as an Individual Trust Account in the name of and for the sole benefit of the Beneficiary. The assets in the Individual Trust Accounts can be pooled for investment and management purposes, but an Individual Trust Account will remain in a separate account. The Trustee may pay for a Beneficiary's Supplemental Services from the assets of an Individual Trust Account up to the whole thereof as the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may from time to time deem advisable for the Beneficiary. Any income not so distributed shall be added annually to the principal in the Trust Account maintained for the Beneficiary.

Section 2.03 Beneficiary Advocate & Delegation of Beneficiary Support

The JLA Trust Board of Directors shall have the authority to appoint a qualified individual and/or agency to provide beneficiary support for each beneficiary account included but not limited to enrollment, approval or disapproval of all disbursement requests for each Beneficiary's account to assure continued benefit eligibility, and termination of beneficiary account upon death of beneficiary. The JLA Trust Board of Directors shall also have the authority to remove and replace the qualified individual or agency.

Section 2.04 Selection of Beneficiary Advocate

A Beneficiary Advocate and if possible a Successor Beneficiary Advocate or Successor Beneficiary Advocates are to be named in the Joinder Agreement, subject to the approval of the Trustee and/or JLA Trust.

- (a) A Trust Beneficiary shall not normally serve as his or her own Beneficiary Advocate. However, if Trust Beneficiary acts as his or her own Advocate, JLA Trust and/or a Trustee may, in its discretion, remove him or her from acting as own Beneficiary Advocate if it believes he or she is not acting in his own best interest. The Successor Beneficiary Advocate shall then assume responsibility of acting as Beneficiary Advocate for Trust Beneficiary. In the event that there is no Successor Beneficiary Advocate named in the Joinder, or the named successor is unwilling to act in this capacity, JLA Trust and/or a Trustee may request assessment and/or ongoing support from professional care manager, social worker, fiduciary, or otherwise qualified individual to serve as Beneficiary Advocate. Expenses shall be paid out of Trust Beneficiary's Trust Account.

- (b) Upon execution of the Beneficiary Advocate Acceptance of Duties, the Beneficiary Advocate shall stand in the shoes of the Trust Beneficiary and all decisions made by the Beneficiary Advocate shall be binding upon the Trust Beneficiary and the Final Beneficiaries. JLA Trust and the Trustee shall rely on the representations of the Beneficiary Advocate as if made by the Trust Beneficiary.
- (c) JLA Trust and/or a Trustee may, in its discretion, remove a Beneficiary Advocate if it believes he or she is not acting in the best interest of Trust Beneficiary. In the event that there are no other Successor Beneficiary Advocates named in the Joinder, or the named successor is unwilling to act in this capacity, JLA Trust and/or a Trustee may authorize assessment and/or ongoing support from professional care manager, social worker, fiduciary, or otherwise qualified individual to serve as Beneficiary Advocate. Expenses shall be paid out of Trust Beneficiary's Trust Account.

ARTICLE 3 – DISTRIBUTION GUIDELINES

Section 3.01 Distribution Guidelines

The Trustee may distribute discretionary amounts of principal and income for the benefit of each Beneficiary from their respective Individual Trust Account for those supplementary needs not otherwise provided by governmental financial assistance. The Trustee shall not make any distributions from the Beneficiary's Trust that supplant or replace public assistance benefits from any county, state, federal government, regional center, or other governmental agencies that may be available to the Beneficiary, unless the Trustee determines, in the Trustee's sole and absolute discretion, that the advantage of such distributions outweighs the loss of the Beneficiary's benefits.

Section 3.02 Trustee Discretion on Distributions is Absolute

In determining a Beneficiary's eligibility for any public benefits, no part of the principal or undistributed income of the Beneficiary's Individual Account shall be considered available to the Beneficiary. In the event the Trustee is requested to release principal or income of the trust to or on behalf of a Beneficiary to pay for equipment, medication, or services which any government agency is authorized to provide, or in the event the Trustee is requested to petition the court or any other administrative agency for the release of trust principal or income for this purpose, the Trustee is authorized to deny such request and is authorized, in the Trustee's discretion, to take whatever administrative or judicial steps may be necessary to continue a Beneficiary's eligibility for benefits, including obtaining instructions from a court of competent jurisdiction ruling that the Individual Trust Account is not available to a Beneficiary for eligibility purposes. Any expenses of the Trustee in this regard, including reasonable attorney's fees, shall be a proper charge to the Individual Trust Account.

Section 3.03 The Beneficiary's Interests are Primary

The Beneficiary's needs shall supersede the interests of all remainder beneficiaries recognized under the Individual Trust Account.

Section 3.04 Trust Not Liable for Failure to Identify Resources

The Parties recognize and acknowledge the uncertainty and changing nature of the guidelines, laws and regulations pertaining to Government Assistance and agree that the JLA Trust will not be responsible for causing a period of disqualification for a Beneficiary. In addition, the JLA Trust will not in any event be liable for any loss of benefits by a Beneficiary as long as the JLA Trust acts in good faith.

Section 3.05 Payments to Third Parties for Goods or Services

In making payments to a third party for goods or services, the Trustee shall consider the time and effort involved in providing the services, as well as the prevailing rate of compensation for similar services.

ARTICLE 4 – ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

Section 4.01 Individual Trust Account

A separate Individual Trust Account shall be maintained for each Beneficiary. Each Beneficiary's Trust Account shall be treated as an Individual Trust Share of the Master Trust. If the Beneficiary or the Advocate objects to the accounting, the time to object is one-hundred eighty (180) days from the date of receipt of the accounting. Failure to object within this time period shall conclusively be deemed an acceptance of the accounting as to all matters and transactions set forth therein as to the person not timely objecting.

Section 4.05 Inspection of Individual Trust Account Records

Individual Trust Account records shall be available at all reasonable times and upon reasonable written request for inspection by the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Advocate, a person designated in writing by the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's duly appointed Guardian, Conservator or Agent under a Durable Power of Attorney for Asset
